

VIRGINIA:

In the Supreme Court of Virginia held at the Supreme Court Building in the City of Richmond on Friday the 27th day of February, 2015.

It is ordered that the Rules heretofore adopted and promulgated by this Court and now in effect be and they hereby are amended to become effective May 1, 2015.

Add Parts of Rule 4:11 to read as follows:

Rule 4:11. Requests for Admission.

* * *

(e) Limitation on Number of Requests. -

(1) Requests for admission not related to genuineness of documents. Unless all parties agree, or the court grants leave for good cause shown, no party shall serve upon any other party, at any one time or cumulatively, more than 30 requests for admission, including all parts and subparts, that do not relate to the genuineness of documents. Leave to propound additional requests shall be liberally granted in the interests of justice.

(2) Requests for admission relating to the genuineness of documents. The number of requests for admissions relating to the genuineness of documents shall not be limited unless the court enters a protective order pursuant to the provisions of Rule 4:1(c) upon a finding that justice so requires in order to protect the responding party from unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense.
